

Jochen Ott
Curriculum Vitae

December 2004

Date and Place of Birth:

30th of August 1983 in Bietigheim-Bissingen

Education:

1994-1996 German School in Mexico City
1993/94 and 96-2002 Gymnasium im Ellental (High School) in Bietigheim 06/2002 Abitur (school-leaving examination) at the Ellentalgymnasium Bietigheim in Physics, Mathematics, History and English
10/2003-today Studies in Physics at the University of Karlsruhe

Work Experience:

2002/2003 Civil Service in the Rudolf-Sophien-Stift in Stuttgart, a clinic for mentally disabled
2002/2003 Leading the Informatics-Course for the Kepler-Seminar 2004-today Programming a Web-Application for the Mathematical Institute at the University

Activities:

1999-2002 Kepler-Seminar in Stuttgart – a project for pupils with weekly talks to scientific subjects and working groups (chemistry, mathematics, physics,...)
2000-2003 Several participations in "Jugend forscht", a competition for young researchers
2002 First Prize in Physics in the International Conference for Young Scientists
(ICYS) in Kutaisi, Georgia
2003-today Active member of MHN, a network for students, organized by students with workshops, conferences and other activities

Foreign Languages:

English fluent – 9 years in school
French basic – 5 years in school
Spanish basic – 2 years in Mexico

Other Interests:

Photography, reading, computer programming